

LUCKY FOODS FOR NEW YEARS

SAUERKRAUT

According to German superstition, strands of sauerkraut symbolize a long life - and a heaping plate of sauerkraut means wealth in the new year!

Try our Sauerkraut Salad!

NOODLES

Noodles, especially extra-long ones, are thought to bring a long life - just make sure you don't break them in the middle while cooking or eating!

Try our Zesty Asian Noodle Salad!

PORK

Pigs root around with their snouts moving forward, which symbolizes progress for the coming year! Their rotund shape also symbolizes a fat wallet ahead!

Try our Pork, Kraut & Tomatoes!

POMEGRANATE

According to Greek tradition, pomegranates symbolize luck and fertility. Toss one against your door - the more seeds fall out, the more luck for your household!

Try our Pomegranate Lime Salsa!

CAKE

Cakes are a symbol of coming full circle. Traditionally, the cake is baked with a coin inside - the person who gets that slice will have good luck for the year ahead!

Try our Sauerkraut Cake!

COLLARD GREENS

It's all about the greens, which symbolizes money and prosperity. According to Southern tradition, greens can ward off evil spirits that may come your way.

Try our Collard Green Tabbouleh!